This is the first release of our joint endeavour between Vagrant and Horobi no Machi. We soon plan to bring you lots of cool stuff from this partnership so look forward to it. Big thanks to Zenigame for being a great (fast) translator, and of course everyone else from both teams.

Vagrants Scans is recruiting for all positions, so take a look at our site and apply.

Horobi no Machi is also looking for editors to handle all of the translating Zenigame does, so drop their site a visit too.
